

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION.

The Parish of Doddington, more properly Doddington-Pigot, is situated in the Diocese and County of Lincoln, at the extreme north-western point of the parts of Kesteven, about six miles south-west of the City of Lincoln, and bounded by the County of Nottingham on the north and west. The ecclesiastical Parish is a Rectory, in the Deanery of Graffoe and Archdeaconry of Lincoln, and comprises the two townships of Doddington and Whisby. Of these, Doddington, containing 2,515 acres, had a population of 147, and Whisby, containing 1,634 acres, a population of 86, according to the Census of 1891.

There was already a Church and a Priest at Doddington at the time of the Domesday Survey, which states that before the Conquest the Manor had been given by Ailric, son of Mariete, its owner in Edward the Confessor's time, to the Abbot and Convent of St. Peter of Westminster. It was, doubtless, from this connection that the Church obtained that dedication to St. Peter which it still retains. Under the Abbot and Convent of Westminster the Manor was held for many generations on payment of a fee farm rent by the knightly family of Pigot, from whose long possession, lasting to the close of the fifteenth century, the Parish gained the distinctive adjunct to its name of Doddington-Pigot, which is attached to it in the Registers and other official documents. One John Pigot claimed the Advowson of Doddington from the Abbot in 1194; another, in 1274, claimed to have his gallows at Doddington, which he said he and his ancestors had had for one hundred years past. The last Sir John Pigot of this family died s.p. in 1450: and on the death, in 1473, of his widow, Dame Elizabeth (the wife successively of William Vaux, Esq., and John Stanley, Esq.), the estate passed by a previous sale to Sir Thomas Burgh, K.G., created in 1487 Baron Burgh of Gainsborough. In the Burgh family it continued until 1586, when it was sold by Thomas, fifth Lord Burgh, K.G., and Lord Deputy of Ireland, to John Savile, Esq., of Howley, near Leeds, afterwards Lord Savile of Pontefract, the baptism here of whose son and heir, Thomas, afterwards Earl of Sussex, is recorded in 1591. After seven years' ownership John Savile sold Doddington to Thomas Tailor, of Lincoln, a man of great wealth, who had been Registrar to the Bishops of Lincoln. By him the present stately Elizabethan Hall was built; and his burial here, in accordance with his will, is recorded in the Register, 26 Nov., 1607. His daughter, Jane Tailor, married, as his first wife, George Anton, Esq., Recorder of Lincoln, 1587—1612, and M.P. for that City, 1588 and 1592. The Baptisms and Burials of several of his children are entered in our Register between 1594 and 1603; these, however, were by a subsequent marriage. But Elizabeth Anton, his only daughter by his first wife, became heir to her grandfather and to her uncle, a second Thomas Tailor, and by her marriage to Sir Edward Hussey, of Honington, Knt. and Bart., brought Doddington into the possession of that distinguished Lincolnshire family. On her death, in 1658, she was succeeded by her grandson, Sir Thomas Hussey, 2nd Baronet and Knt. of the Shire, the Baptisms of four of whose children are recorded here. Many more are at Honington, near Grantham, which was the family burial place, and where his own burial is entered, 26 Dec., 1706. Of the three daughters who were his co-heiresses the ultimate survivor and sole heir was Sarah, the wife of Robert Aprece, Esq., of Washingley, co. Hunts. By her (d. 1749) Doddington was settled on her daughter, Rhoda, the wife of Francis Blake-Delaval, Esq., of Seaton-Delaval, co. Northumberland, and on their second son, John Hussey-Delaval, created a Baronet in 1761, Baron Delaval in the Irish Peerage in 1783, and in the peerage of Great Britain in 1786. The Burial in our Church of his only son, who died just before he attained his majority, is recorded in this Register in 1775. On Lord Delaval's death without male issue, in 1808, Doddington was inherited by his brother, Edward Hussey-Delaval, Esq., F.R.S., who survived until 1814. His only daughter, Sarah Hussey-Delaval, the widow of James Gunman, Esq., of Dover and Coventry, dying without issue in 1829, bequeathed it to her friend, Lt.-Col. George Ralph Payne Jarvis, whose son, George Knollis Jarvis, Esq., and grandson, George Eden Jarvis, Esq., J.P. and D.L., have been successively owners of the estate and patrons of the Rectory. This sketch of the descent of the property will serve to explain the succession of Patrons as given in the subjoined list of the Rectors, as well as many entries in the Registers.

The ownership of the township of Whisby has always been distinct from that of Doddington. Early in the seventeenth century it was owned by Robert Cracroft, Esq., an ancestor of the family now seated at Hackthorn, the baptisms of several of whose children are recorded in the Register. It is now the property of Robert C. Vyner, Esq., of Newby Hall, co. York.

The following table of the Rectors of Doddington, with the dates of their Institution, and the Patrons by whom they were presented, is compiled from the Bishop's Registers at Lincoln, which commence with the episcopate of Bishop Hugh de Wells in 1209.

The Parish Registers now at Doddington commence only in 1690, but a search in the Bishop's Registry at Lincoln has furnished the Transcripts of some seventy previous years. The earliest of these are 1562, 1565, and 1569; from 1587 the series is complete, with a few exceptions, until 1632, and again, after the usual break during the time of the Commonwealth, from 1664 to 1690, when the present Registers begin. Possibly, a few more years may be discovered in the Bishop's Registry, if ever the work of arranging the Transcripts, according to their Parishes, shall be completed. At present, the Transcripts from the three adjoining Deaneries of Christianity (Lincoln), Graffoe, and Longoboby, comprising fifty Parishes, are rolled up in bundles, just as they were handed in each year at the Bishop's or Archdeacon's Visitation; so that a search for those of any particular parish is both difficult and uncertain. Our thanks are due to W. W. Smith, Esq.,

* John Forster was Trustee for Mrs. Sarah Apreece.

the Bishop of Lincoln's Secretary, who has kindly allowed ready access to these and other documents under his charge.

The existing Parish Registers, previous to 1813, are contained in three Volumes, as follows:—

Vol. I. Bound in Parchment, 10½ by 5½ inches, contains twenty-seven leaves of Parchment, with three Paper fly-leaves, and is in good condition. The first page is headed, "A true and perfect Register of all Marriages, Christenings and buryalls within the parrish of Doddington Pygott for the yeare of our Lord 1690. Incipit Annus" (with March 25th). First entry, a Baptism, 30 March, 1690; last, also a baptism, 12 Feb., 1788. Each year has a similar heading until 1726, when the Rev. Wm: Carleton, Rector, died; and the names of Rector and Churchwardens are affixed at the end of each year, or column, until 1736. After 1744, when the Rev. Wm: Singleton, Rector, died, and the Rev. R. P. Hurton became Curate to the non-resident Rector, G. Wilson, the entries are carelessly made and badly written. No Marriages are entered from 1742 to 1754, when Vol. II. begins; no Burials are entered from 1761 to 1787, except that on p. 31, otherwise blank, is the entry,—“John Delaval, Esq<sup>r</sup>, died July, 1775, in the 20 year of his age.” To most Burials between 1727 and 1744 the words “Affidavit received” are added, referring, of course, to the burial of the deceased in woollen. Burials of three Rectors are recorded,—William Moore, 5 Jan., 1691-2; William Carleton, 29 Aug., 1726; William Hammond, 12 Sept., 1738, the last the only one of whom there is any memorial in the Church. In 1609-10, as many as twenty-five Burials took place, and seventeen in 1719, the present average being less than two. On the last parchment page is an “Account of the Communion Plate,” signed by Wm: Hammond, Rector; and inside the Covers and on the paper fly-leaves are Lists of Mortuaries received from 1711 to 1740, and of Briefs during the years 1727, 1730, and 1732.

Vol. II. Register of Marriages, with Banns attached, in the printed forms issued in 1754. Filled to No. 116; first Entry, April, 1754; last, May, 1812. Out of 310 Signatures of Males, as Married or as Witnesses, 58 are by Mark; out of 158 Females, 87 sign by Mark.

Vol. III. Register of Baptisms and Burials, 1788—1812; contains ten leaves of parchment, with paper fly-leaves, 14 by 9 inches, bound in parchment. First Entry, 1st Aug., 1788; last, 28th Dec., 1812. Inside the Cover is written:—"Doddington. This Book or Register of Baptisms and Burials was begun on the sixth day of May in the year one Thousand seven hundred and Eighty-eight.

£ me, Geo: Hare, Curate.

Jarvis Harrison, Ch-warden."

<sup>1</sup> John Savile was the son of Sir Robert Savile, Knt., of Howley, near Leeds, by Anne, d. of Sir Robert Hussey, of Lynwood, in the parish of Blankney, widow of Matthew Thimelby, of Poolham, Esq. He bought Doddington in 1586 from Thomas, 5th Lord Burgh, and sold it again to Thomas Tailor in 1593. In 1586 he was M.P. for the City of Lincoln, and held the office of High Sheriff of Lincolnshire as John Savile of Doddington in 1590. Later he became Sir John Savile, several times Knt. of the Shire for Yorkshire, and was created Lord Savile of Pontefract, 21 July, 1628. He died 31 Aug., 1630, leaving by his second wife, Elizabeth, d. of Sir Edward Cary, Knt., an only son, Thomas, whose Baptism is here recorded, who succeeded him as Lord Savile of Pontefract, was created Earl of Sussex in 1644, and died in 1652.

<sup>1</sup> Mr. Thomas Taylor had been Registrar to the Bishops of Lincoln, and bought the estate of Doddington in 1593. Previously to this he had resided in St. Martin's Lincoln, in the Register of which parish many entries relating to him and his family are to be found. His Will was proved at Lincoln by Thomas Taylor, his son and executor, 30 Nov. 1607; and the inquisition taken after his death shows that besides Doddington he had purchased several other Manors, nearly 10,000 acres in all, in different parts of Lincolnshire,
